Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The allure of precious freedom and opportunity brought pioneering settlers to the southern border of Hutchinson County; and,

Whereas, Kaylor, South Dakota, was established by filing with the Register of Deeds in Hutchinson County on August 30, 1907, and is a community that provides for itself with no formal form of government; and,

Whereas, With hard work and strong faith, families grew and citizens went forth; and,

Whereas, When the need arises, the citizens come together to provide for those in need or for the betterment of the community; and,

Whereas, A variety of activities are planned for August 3-5, 2007, for the people of Kaylor to celebrate the history of their community as it spans the past 100 years; and,

Whereas, The descendants of this legacy have been inextricably woven into the fabric of our state and nation, and a sharing of love for the land with good neighbors is timeless:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 3-5, 2007, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirtieth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
